Approved For Release 2004/01/15 : CIA-RDP64B00346R000200040006-4

JCULN .L

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Tuesday - 21 . agust 1962

STAT

STAT

STAT

STAT

STAT

Senate Foreign Relations Committee, concerning our early retirement legislation, H. R. 12923. He reviewed the bill and stated it was his opinion that he could see no question being raised by the Foreign Relations Committee and ventured the opinion that if Senator Russell was able to push this he doubted that the matter would even be noticed. J. Received from Alfred Nittle, Cound the House Committee on Un-American Activities, a line page proof of the House Committee on Un-American Activities, a line page proof of the testimony of persons that has been prepared for inclusion in the publication. Fublication of this testimony has been delayed due to attempted the Committee to bring other witnesses before the Committee before	Senate Foreign Relations Committee, concerning our early retirement legislation, H. R. 12923. He reviewed the bill and stated it was his opinion that he could see no question being raised by the Foreign Relations Committee and vantured the opinion that if Senator Russell was able to push this he doubted that the matter would even be neticed. 3. Received from Alfred Nittle, Counsel of the House Committee on Un-A nerican Activities, a line page proof of the testimony of Defore the Committee on 24 and 25 May 1962.
Senate Foreign Relations Committee, concerning our early retirement legislation, H. R. 12923. He reviewed the bill and stated it was his opinion that he could see no question being raised by the Foreign Relations Committee and ventured the opinion that if Senator Russell was able to push this he doubted that the matter would even be noticed. 3. Received from Alfred Nittle, Cound the House Committee on Un-American Activities, a line page proof of the testimony of the Committee on 24 and 25 May 1962, together with a synomist that has been prepared for inclusion in the publication. Fublication of this testimony has been delayed due to attempted the Committee to bring other witnesses before the Committee before	Senate Foreign Relations Committee, concerning our early retirement legislation, H. R. 12923. He reviewed the bill and stated it was his opinion that he could see no question being raised by the Foreign Relations Committee and vantured the opinion that if Senator Russell was able to push this he doubted that the matter would even be neticed. 3. Received from Alfred Nittle, Counsel of the House Committee on Un-A nerican Activities, a line page proof of the testimony of the Dominitee on 24 and 25 May 1962, together with a symple that has been prepared for inclusion in the published the Committee to bring other witnesses before the Committee before testimony is made public. It has now been determined, however,
Senate Foreign Relations Committee, concerning our early retirement legislation, H. R. 12923. He reviewed the bill and stated it was his opinion that he could see no question being raised by the Foreign Relations Committee and ventured the opinion that if Senator Russell was able to push this he doubted that the matter would even be noticed. 3. Received from Alfred Nittle, Cound the House Committee on Un-American Activities, a line page proof of the testimony of the Committee on 24 and 25 May 1962, together with a synomial that has been prepared for inclusion in the publication. Publication of this testimony has been delayed due to attempt of the Committee to bring other witnesses before the Committee before	Senate Foreign Relations Committee, concerning our early retirement legislation, H. R. 12923. He reviewed the bill and stated it was his opinion that he could see no question being raised by the Foreign Relations Committee and vantured the opinion that if Senator Russell was able to push this he doubted that the matter would even be neticed. 3. Received from Alfred Nittle, Counsel of the House Committee on Un-A nerican Activities, a line page proof of the testimony of the Dominitee on 24 and 25 May 1962, together with a symple that has been prepared for inclusion in the published the Committee to bring other witnesses before the Committee before testimony is made public. It has now been determined, however,
Senate Foreign Relations Committee, concerning our early retirement legislation, H. R. 12923. He reviewed the bill and stated it was his opinion that he could see no question being raised by the Foreign Relations Committee and ventured the opinion that if Senator Russell was able to push this he doubted that the matter would even be noticed. 3. Received from Alfred Nittle, Counfittee on the House Committee on Un-American Activities, a line page proof of the testimony of the Committee on the Committee on 24 and 25 May 1952, together with a synomials that has been prepared for inclusion in the publication. Publication of this testimony has been delayed due to attempt of the Committee to bring other witnesses before the Committee before	Senate Foreign Relations Committee, concerning our early retirement legislation, H. R. 12923. He reviewed the bill and stated it was his opinion that he could see no question being raised by the Foreign Relations Committee and vantured the opinion that if Senator Russell was able to push this he doubted that the matter would even be neticed. 3. Received from Alfred Nittle, Counsel of the House Committee on Un-A nerican Activities, a line page proof of the testimony of the Dominitee on 24 and 25 May 1962, together with a symple that has been prepared for inclusion in the published the Committee to bring other witnesses before the Committee before testimony is made public. It has now been determined, however,
Senate Foreign Relations Committee, concerning our early retirement legislation, H. R. 12923. He reviewed the bill and stated it was his opinion that he could see no question being raised by the Foreign Relations Committee and ventured the opinion that if Senator Russell was able to push this he doubted that the matter would even be noticed. 3. Received from Alfred Nittle, Counfittee on the House Committee on Un-American Activities, a line page proof of the testimony of the Committee on the Committee on 24 and 25 May 1952, together with a synomials that has been prepared for inclusion in the publication. Publication of this testimony has been delayed due to attempt of the Committee to bring other witnesses before the Committee before	Senate Foreign Relations Committee, concerning our early retirement legislation, H. R. 12923. He reviewed the bill and stated it was his opinion that he could see no question being raised by the Foreign Relations Committee and vantured the opinion that if Senator Russell was able to push this he doubted that the matter would even be neticed. 3. Received from Alfred Nittle, Counsel of the House Committee on Un-A nerican Activities, a line page proof of the testimony of the Dominitee on 24 and 25 May 1962, together with a symple that has been prepared for inclusion in the published the Committee to bring other witnesses before the Committee before testimony is made public. It has now been determined, however,
Senate Foreign Relations Committee, concerning our early retirement legislation, H. R. 12923. He reviewed the bill and stated it was his opinion that he could see no question being raised by the Foreign Relations Committee and vantured the opinion that if Senator Russell was able to push this he doubted that the matter would even be noticed. 3. Received from Alfred Nittle, Counfittee on the House Committee on Un-American Activities, a line page proof of the testimony of the Committee on the Committee on the publication of this testimony has been delayed due to attempt of the Committee to bring other witnesses before the Committee before	Senate Foreign Relations Committee, concerning our early retirement legislation, H. R. 12923. He reviewed the bill and stated it was his opinion that he could see no question being raised by the Foreign Relations Committee and vantured the opinion that if Senator Russell was able to push this he doubted that the matter would even be neticed. 3. Received from Alfred Nittle, Counsel of the House Committee on Un-A nerican Activities, a line page proof of the testimony of the Dominitee on 24 and 25 May 1962, together with a symple that has been prepared for inclusion in the published the Committee to bring other witnesses before the Committee before testimony is made public. It has now been determined, however,
Senate Foreign Relations Committee, concerning our early retirement legislation, H. R. 12923. He reviewed the bill and stated it was his opinion that he could see no question being raised by the Foreign Relations Committee and vantured the opinion that if Senator Russell was able to push this he doubted that the matter would even be noticed. 3. Received from Alfred Nittle, Counfittee on the House Committee on Un-American Activities, a line page proof of the testimony of the Committee on the Committee on the publication of this testimony has been delayed due to attempt of the Committee to bring other witnesses before the Committee before	Senate Foreign Relations Committee, concerning our early retirement legislation, H. R. 12923. He reviewed the bill and stated it was his opinion that he could see no question being raised by the Foreign Relations Committee and vantured the opinion that if Senator Russell was able to push this he doubted that the matter would even be neticed. 3. Received from Alfred Nittle, Counsel of the House Committee on Un-A nerican Activities, a line page proof of the testimony of the Dominitee on 24 and 25 May 1962, together with a symple that has been prepared for inclusion in the published the Committee to bring other witnesses before the Committee before testimony is made public. It has now been determined, however,
Senate Foreign Relations Committee, concerning our early retirement legislation, H. R. 12923. He reviewed the bill and stated it was his opinion that he could see no question being raised by the Foreign Relations Committee and vantured the opinion that if Senator Russell was able to push this he doubted that the matter would even be noticed. 3. Received from Alfred Nittle, Count the House Committee on Un-American Activities, a line page proof of the testimony of Defore the Committee on 24 and 25 May 1952, together with a synomial that has been prepared for inclusion in the publication. Fublication of this testimony has been delayed due to attempted the Committee to bring other witnesses before the Committee before	Senate Foreign Relations Committee, concerning our early retirement legislation, H. R. 12923. He reviewed the bill and stated it was his opinion that he could see no question being raised by the Foreign Relations Committee and vantured the opinion that if Senator Russell was able to push this he doubted that the matter would even be neticed. 3. Received from Alfred Nittle, Counsel of the House Committee on Un-A nerican Activities, a line page proof of the testimony of the Dominitee on 24 and 25 May 1962, together with a symple that has been prepared for inclusion in the published the Committee to bring other witnesses before the Committee before testimony is made public. It has now been determined, however,
Senate Foreign Relations Committee, concerning our early retirement legislation, H. R. 12923. He reviewed the bill and stated it was his opinion that he could see no question being raised by the Foreign Relations Committee and vantured the opinion that if Senator Russell was able to push this he doubted that the matter would even be noticed. 3. Received from Alfred Nittle, Count the House Committee on Un-American Activities, a line page proof of the testimony of Defore the Committee on 24 and 25 May 1952, together with a synomial that has been prepared for inclusion in the publication. Fublication of this testimony has been delayed due to attempted the Committee to bring other witnesses before the Committee before	Senate Foreign Relations Committee, concerning our early retirement legislation, H. R. 12923. He reviewed the bill and stated it was his opinion that he could see no question being raised by the Foreign Relations Committee and vantured the opinion that if Senator Russell was able to push this he doubted that the matter would even be neticed. 3. Received from Alfred Nittle, Counsel of the House Committee on Un-A nerican Activities, a line page proof of the testimony of the Dominitee on 24 and 25 May 1962, together with a symple that has been prepared for inclusion in the published the Committee to bring other witnesses before the Committee before testimony is made public. It has now been determined, however,
Senate Foreign Relations Committee, concerning our early retirement legislation, H. R. 12923. He reviewed the bill and stated it was his opinion that he could see no question being raised by the Foreign Relations Committee and vantured the opinion that if Senator Russell was able to push this he doubted that the matter would even be noticed. 3. Received from Alfred Nittle, Count the House Committee on Un-American Activities, a line page proof of the testimony of Defore the Committee on 24 and 25 May 1952, together with a synomist that has been prepared for inclusion in the publication of this testimony has been delayed due to attempt of the Committee to bring other witnesses before the Committee before	Senate Foreign Relations Committee, concerning our early retirement legislation, H. R. 12923. He reviewed the bill and stated it was his opinion that he could see no question being raised by the Foreign Relations Committee and vantured the opinion that if Senator Russell was able to push this he doubted that the matter would even be neticed. 3. Received from Alfred Nittle, Counsel of the House Committee on Un-A nerican Activities, a line page proof of the testimony of the Dominitee on 24 and 25 May 1962, together with a symple that has been prepared for inclusion in the published the Committee to bring other witnesses before the Committee before testimony is made public. It has now been determined, however,
Senate Foreign Relations Committee, concerning our early retirement legislation, H. R. 12923. He reviewed the bill and stated it was his opinion that he could see no question being raised by the Foreign Relations Committee and vantured the opinion that if Senator Russell was able to push this he doubted that the matter would even be noticed. 3. Received from Alfred Nittle, Count the House Committee on Un-American Activities, a line page proof of the testimony of Defore the Committee on 24 and 25 May 1952, together with a synomist that has been prepared for inclusion in the publication of this testimony has been delayed due to attempt of the Committee to bring other witnesses before the Committee before	Senate Foreign Relations Committee, concerning our early retirement legislation, H. R. 12923. He reviewed the bill and stated it was his opinion that he could see no question being raised by the Foreign Relations Committee and vantured the opinion that if Senator Russell was able to push this he doubted that the matter would even be neticed. 3. Received from Alfred Nittle, Counsel of the House Committee on Un-A nerican Activities, a line page proof of the testimony of the Dominitee on 24 and 25 May 1962, together with a symple that has been prepared for inclusion in the published the Committee to bring other witnesses before the Committee before testimony is made public. It has now been determined, however, legislation, H. R. 12923. He reviewed the bill and stated it was his opinion that he could see no question being raised by the Foreign Relations Committee and vantured the opinion that if Senator Russell was able to push this he doubted that the matter would even be neticed. 3. Received from Alfred Nittle, Count the House Committee on Un-A nerican Activities, a line page proof the testimony of Defore the Committee on 24 and 25 May 1962, together with a synopsis that has been prepared for inclusion in the publicating. Fublication of this testimony has been delayed due to attempt of the Committee to bring other witnesses before the Committee before	legislation, ii. R. 12923. He reviewed the bill and stated it was his opinion that he could see no question being raised by the Foreign Relations Committee and ventured the opinion that if Senator Russell was able to push this he doubted that the matter would even be neticed. 3. Received from Alfred Nittle, Counsel of the House Committee on Un-A nerican Activities, a line page proof of the testimony of Defore the Committee on 24 and 25 May 1962, together with a synopsis that has been prepared for inclusion in the published bearing. Fublication of this testimony has been delayed due to attempts of the Committee to bring other witnesses before the Committee before testimony is made public. It has now been determined, however, opinion that he could see no question being raised by the Foreign Relations Committee and ventured the opinion that if Senator Russell was able to push this he doubted that the matter would even be neticed. 3. Received from Alfred Nittle, Cou of the House Committee on Un-A nerican Activities, a line page proof of the testimony of before the Committee on 24 and 25 May 1962, together with a synomia that has been prepared for inclusion in the pub- hearing. Publication of this testimony has been delayed due to attempts of the Committee to bring other witnesses before the Committee before	opinion that he could see no question being raised by the Foreign Relations Committee and ventured the opinion that if Senator Russell was able to push this he doubted that the matter would even be noticed. 3. Received from Alfred Nittle, Counsel of the House Committee on Un-A nerican Activities, a line page proof of the testimony of Defore the Committee on 24 and 25 May 1962, together with a synopsis that has been prepared for inclusion in the publishe hearing. Fublication of this testimony has been delayed due to attempts of the Committee to bring other witnesses before the Committee before testimony is made public. It has now been determined, however,	Senate Foreign Relation	as Committee, concerning our early retirement
Relations Committee and ventured the opinion that if Senator Russell was able to push this he doubted that the matter would even be noticed. 3. Received from Alfred Nittle, Count the House Committee on Un-American Activities, a line page proof the testimony of before the Committee on 14 and 25 May 1962, together with a synomia that has been prepared for inclusion in the publicating. Publication of this testimony has been delayed due to attempted the Committee to bring other witnesses before the Committee before	Relations Committee and ventured the opinion that if Senator Russell was able to push this he doubted that the matter would even be noticed. 3. Received from Alfred Nittle, Counsel of the House Committee on Un-A nerican Activities, a line page proof of the testimony of Defore the Committee on 24 and 25 May 1962, together with a synopsis that has been prepared for inclusion in the published hearing. Fublication of this testimony has been delayed due to attempts of the Committee to bring other witnesses before the Committee before testimony is made public. It has now been determined, however,		3. He reviewed the bill and stated it was his
Received from Alfred Nittle, Count the House Committee on Un-American Activities, a line page proof of the House Committee on Un-American Activities, a line page proof of the testimony of perfect the Committee on 24 and 25 May 1962, together with a synomics that has been prepared for inclusion in the publicating. Fublication of this testimony has been delayed due to attempted the Committee to bring other witnesses before the Committee before	Received from Alfred Nittle, Counsel of the House Committee on Un-A nerican Activities, a line page proof of the testimony of the Committee on 24 and 25 May 1962, together with a synopsis that has been prepared for inclusion in the published the Committee to bring other witnesses before the Committee before testimony is made public. It has now been determined, however,
Seceived from Alfred Nittle, Count of the House Committee on Un-American Activities, a line page proof of the testimony of Sefera the Committee on 24 and 25 May 1962, together with a synomial that has been prepared for inclusion in the publication of this testimony has been delayed due to attempt of the Committee to bring other witnesses before the Committee before	Received from Alfred Nittle, Counsel of the House Committee on Un-American Activities, a line page proof of the testimony of		se no question being raised by the Foreign
of the House Committee on Un-American Activities, a line page proof of the testimony of	of the House Committee on Un-A nerican Activities, a line page proof of the testimony of pefore the Committee on 24 and 25 May 1962, together with a synopsis that has been prepared for inclusion in the published hearing. Fublication of this testimony has been delayed due to attempts of the Committee to bring other witnesses before the Committee before testimony is made public. It has now been determined, however,	Relations Committee a	ne no question being raised by the Fereign and ventured the opinion that if Senator Russell of the House Committee on Un-American Activities, a line page proof of the testimony of	of the House Committee on Un-A nerican Activities, a line page proof of the testimony of pefore the Committee on 24 and 25 May 1962, together with a synopsis that has been prepared for inclusion in the published hearing. Fublication of this testimony has been delayed due to attempts of the Committee to bring other witnesses before the Committee before testimony is made public. It has now been determined, however,	Relations Committee a	ne no question being raised by the Fereign and ventured the opinion that if Senator Russell the testimony of before the Committee on 24 and 25 May 1962, together with a synomis that has been prepared for inclusion in the publication of this testimony has been delayed due to attempt of the Committee to bring other witnesses before the Committee before	the testimony of before the Committee on 14 and 25 May 1962, together with a synopsis that has been prepared for inclusion in the published hearing. Fublication of this testimony has been delayed due to attempts of the Committee to bring other witnesses before the Committee before testimony is made public. It has now been determined, however,	Relations Committee a	ne no question being raised by the Foreign and ventured the opinion that if Senator Russell e doubted that the matter would even be noticed.
together with a synopsis that has been prepared for inclusion in the publication of this testimony has been delayed due to attempt of the Committee to bring other witnesses before the Committee before	together with a symple is that has been prepared for inclusion in the published hearing. Fublication of this testimony has been delayed due to attempts of the Committee to bring other witnesses before the Committee before testimony is made public. It has now been determined, however,	Relations Committee a was able to push this h	ne no question being raised by the Foreign and ventured the opinion that if Senator Russell e doubted that the matter would even be neticed. Received from Alfred Nittle, Counsel hearing. Fublication of this testimony has been delayed due to attempts of the Committee to bring other witnesses before the Committee before	hearing. Fublication of this testimony has been delayed due to attempts of the Committee to bring other witnesses before the Committee before testimony is made public. It has now been determined, however,	Relations Committee a was able to push this had so the House Committee	ne no question being raised by the Foreign and ventured the opinion that if Senator Russell e doubted that the matter would even be noticed. Received from Alfred Nittle, Counsel a on Un-A nerican Activities, a line page proof of
of the Committee to bring other witnesses before the Committee before	of the Committee to bring other witnesses before the Committee before testimony is made public. It has now been determined, however,	Relations Committee a was able to push this had a see the second the second the second the testimony of	ne no question being raised by the Foreign and ventured the opinion that if Senator Russell e doubted that the matter would even be noticed. Received from Alfred Nittle, Counsel on Un-A nerican Activities, a line page proof of before the Committee on 24 and 25 May 1962, testimony is made public. It has now been determined, however,	Relations Committee a was able to push this but it is a second the House Committee the testimony of together with a synopsis	Received from Alfred Nittle, Counsel on Un-A nerican Activities, a line page proof of before the Committee on 24 and 25 May 1962, is that has been prepared for inclusion in the publishe
		Relations Committee a was able to push this had not the House Committee the testimony of together with a synopsishearing. Publication of	ne no question being raised by the Foreign and ventured the opinion that if Senator Russell e doubted that the matter would even be neticed. Received from Alfred Nittle, Counsel 2 on Un-A nerican Activities, a line page proof of before the Committee on 24 and 25 May 1962, is that has been prepared for inclusion in the published this testimony has been delayed due to attempts to so ahead with sublication. Proofs will be reviewed by FR Division and	Relations Committee a was able to push this had not been sufficiently of the House Committee the testimony of the testimony of the testimony of the Committee to be af the Committee to be	Received from Alfred Nittle, Counsel on Un-A nerican Activities, a line page proof of before the Committee on 24 and 25 May 1962, is that has been prepared for inclusion in the published this testimony has been delayed due to attempts ing other witnesses before the Committee before

CIA MIR M. USE ONLY